

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: October 10, 2026

Community Integrated Health, operated by V&M Healthcare Limited LC, respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you provide through our website.

Information We Collect

We may collect information voluntarily submitted through website forms, appointment scheduling, email communications, or other online interactions. This may include your name, contact information, appointment requests, and other information you choose to provide.

How Information Is Used

Information collected may be used to respond to inquiries, coordinate appointments, communicate with patients, provide requested services, and support clinic operations.

We do not sell personal information. Information may be shared with authorized service providers when necessary to operate our services or when required by law.

Protection of Health Information

Protected health information collected in connection with medical care is handled in accordance with applicable privacy laws, including HIPAA.

Our separate Notice of Privacy Practices provides additional information about how medical information may be used, disclosed, and protected, as well as your rights regarding that information.

Third-Party Services

Our website may utilize third-party services for appointment scheduling, communication, payments, or website functionality. These services may maintain their own privacy policies.
