

Website Terms & Conditions

Effective Date: October 10, 2026

By accessing or using the Community Integrated Health website, operated by V&M Healthcare Limited LC, you acknowledge the following terms and conditions.

Website Information

Information provided on this website is intended for general informational and educational purposes only. It does not constitute individualized medical advice or replace an evaluation by a qualified healthcare provider.

Medical Services

Submitting a website inquiry, requesting an appointment, or accessing website information does not automatically establish a patient-provider relationship. A patient-provider relationship is established when Community Integrated Health accepts an individual for medical care.

Appointments and Services

Appointment availability, operating hours, services, fees, and insurance participation may change without prior notice.

Scheduling an appointment does not guarantee that a particular service, prescription, treatment, or referral will be provided. All medical decisions are based on clinical evaluation and professional judgment.

Emergency Medical Care

Community Integrated Health does not provide emergency medical services through its website.

If you are experiencing a medical emergency, call 911 or seek immediate care at the nearest emergency department.

Website Use

Visitors agree to use the website lawfully and not interfere with its operation or security.

Website content is the property of V&M Healthcare Limited LC or its respective content owners and may not be reproduced for commercial purposes without permission, except as permitted by law.

Changes to Terms

V&M Healthcare Limited LC reserves the right to update these Terms & Conditions as needed. Updates will be reflected on this page.
