

Accessibility Statement

Effective Date: October 1, 2026

Community Integrated Health, operated by V&M Healthcare Limited LC, is committed to providing an accessible and inclusive website experience for all individuals, including those with disabilities.

We strive to make website information understandable, navigation accessible, and online resources available to individuals with varying abilities.

While we continually work toward improving accessibility, some website features or third-party services may not be fully accessible to every visitor.

If you experience difficulty accessing any portion of our website, obtaining information, or scheduling an appointment, please contact our office. We will make reasonable efforts to provide the information or assistance you need through an alternative method.

We welcome feedback regarding website accessibility and opportunities for improvement.
